

Cricket Rules

1. The game is played between two teams of 11 players.
2. The objective is to score more runs than the opposing team.
3. The fielding team has a bowler and a wicket-keeper.
4. The batting team has two batsmen on the field at a time.
5. A bowler bowls an over consisting of 6 legal deliveries.
6. Runs are scored by hitting the ball and running between the wickets, or by hitting boundaries (4s and 6s).
7. A batsman can be dismissed in several ways: bowled, caught, LBW, run out, stumped, etc.
8. The team that scores the most runs wins the match.
